Third party

---

I am

Online and PR professional with over twenty years of experience in public relations, media planning and organization.

In the meantime, my focus is on website development, content creation, communication and event organization. Including managerial responsibility and diverse experience in interdisciplinary teams.

My strengths are

- High communication skills
- Analytical thinking
- High customer orientation
- Good feeling for design, text and targeting
- Creativity, openness and constructive teamwork
- Reliability and loyalty

My extensive travels, already as a child, to almost all cultural regions of the world and my parental background, consisting of two qualified social workers, have particularly encouraged me.

I wish

an exciting and long-term professional challenge. preferably remotely, a four-day week or part-time, which is rewarded according to performance.

I really enjoy working in an international team, also with managerial responsibility and also on weekends.
